PROFILE

Indonesia International Work Camp of Perkumpulan Keluarga Berencana Indonesia–Eng: Indonesia Planned Parenthood Association (IWC of PKBI) is the first international voluntary services organization in Indonesia founded since 1998. We existed and actively involved in promoting global issues which rise from local potential. We believe that every community has potential to be developed by their strength. The presence of volunteers in community will be a trigger to raising local potential and spreading the spirit of volunteerism.

Vision:

“Community empowerment, To Improve Quality of Life”

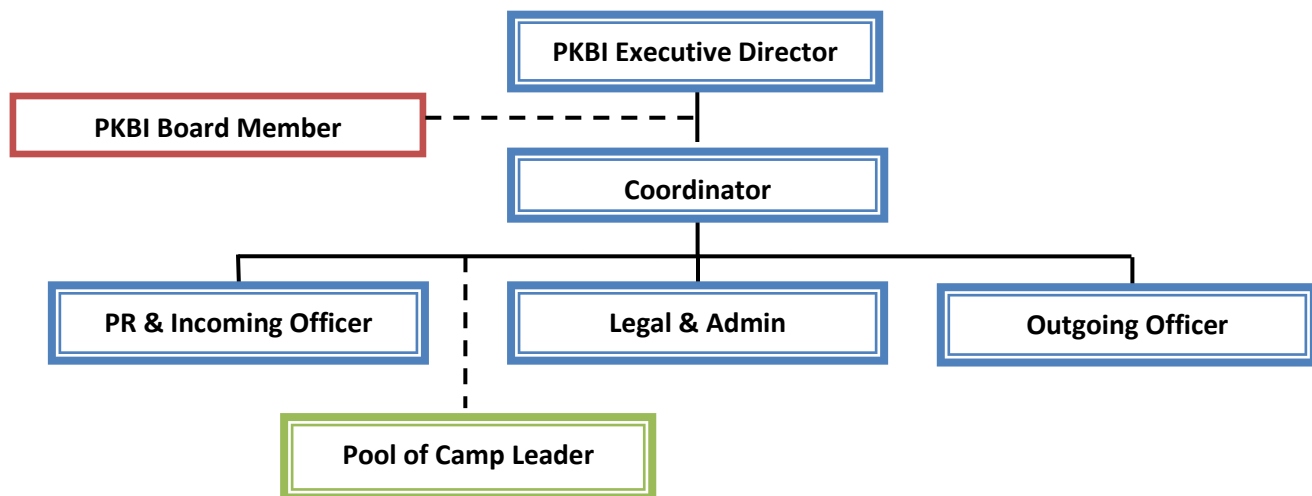

Missions:

1. Community empowerment by maximizing local potentials
2. Improving Youth involvement as agent of changes toward society
3. Spreading volunteerism spirit

Values

1. Volunteerism
2. Pioneering
3. Independency
4. Professionalism

General Information

a. Cancelation

- Please inform to IWC Indonesia through pr.iwcc@pkbi.or.id at least 30 Days before your work camp start. Cancelation it is really harm full to our project. Because, most of projects fund come from international participation fee. It would be unfair if we keep your place blocked and therefore not giving a chance to other motivated volunteers who really eager to come to Indonesia.
- We only cancel our project IF there is NO ONE APPLY. If there is only one volunteer apply, we will give information earlier, so volunteer could choose to move to others project.

b. Financial Policy

Participation fee of STV and VSTV Projects should be paid upon arrival. It starts from IDR 140 Euro to 220 Euro. The participation fee is covering expenses as follow:

- Foods
- Accommodation
- Local transport for project
- IWC T-shirt
- IWC certificate of participation
- Management Fee
- Material for the camps

Please keep it in mind that all personal expenses (including health & travel insurance) and free day expenses are excluded.

For those who by any reason couldn't pay participant fee, we do not give approval for them to join our program.

c. General Requirement

1. Volunteers should be 18 years old or older. For those who under 18 years old, we need parent/guardian permit letter.
2. All volunteers will have an orientation session the first day (arrival days) of each work-camp.
3. We expect all volunteers to have read and understood the info sheet before the workcamp start. Be in time and stay the entire length of the camp.
4. English is the official language within the groups. But, most of our local partners are not capable to speak in English. Basic Indonesian language skill will be appreciated. Volunteers should make the effort in trying to communicate in basic Indonesia or other ways of communicating with local people (work, pictures, gestures, etc.) If you will try, you will be amazed how quick you will learn basic Bahasa Indonesia!
5. The departure day will be the last day of the work-camp.
6. Volunteers will need to bring a sleeping bag and air mattress, but please read the info sheet first, because not all our project site are not provide bed.
7. Our project mostly are self-cooking, self-cleaning and washing, volunteer will join the daily team (Cooking, washing and cleaning team every day) which will be in shifts.

8. Realize that the living conditions in Indonesia (project side) is different than at home (no warm water, less hygiene, no air-conditioning, not easy access to international phone or internet, not easy transportation all the times, bugs, mosquitoes, different food etc.)
9. All volunteers should understand the aims of the workcamp and realize that learning about Indonesian way and the social contact is more important than the manual work.
10. We expect all the volunteers to be open minded, leave prejudice behind and show initiative.
11. The people are quite religious Islamic here, behavior and dress should be noticed the local culture (No tank tops, knees should be covered, no alcohol, no piercing, tattoo must be covered, no smoking in front of kids).
12. Flexibility is expected from everybody. Know that Indonesian way of life and work is less stressed and should always be fun, no matter how hard the work is!
13. The schedule might be changed throughout the camp, depending on conditions and situation. So bring some flexibility and stay relaxed and you will avoid a lot of stress and frustration for yourself.
14. Creativity and ideas for the work, discussions, the campsite, excursions and free time are expected to come from the group during the camp. Share your thoughts and ideas!

Our Program

a. Volunteering in Indonesia

Indonesia lies between latitudes 11°S and 6°N, and longitudes 95°E and 141°E. Due to this country located on equator line, Indonesia has a tropical climate with wet and dry seasons. Average annual rainfall in the lowlands varies from 1,780–3,175 millimeters (70–125 in), and up to 6,100 millimeters (240 in) in mountainous regions. Humidity is quite high, averaging about 80%. The average daily temperature range of Jakarta and another big city is 26–35 °C, and 18-25°C for the mountainous area.

The Republic of Indonesia is the largest archipelago in the world comprising 13,466 large and small tropical islands fringed with white sandy beaches, many still uninhabited and a number even still unnamed. Indonesia has a total population of more than 215 million people from more than 200 ethnic groups. Culturally, Indonesia fascinates with its rich diversity of ancient temples, music, ranging from the traditional to modern pop, dances, rituals and ways of life, changing from island to island, from region to region. Yet everywhere, volunteer feels welcomed with that warm, gracious innate friendliness of the Indonesian people that is not easily forgotten.

b. STV/VSTV

Short Term Volunteering (STV) also called as workcamp is an international volunteering program where volunteers stay 1 – 3 weeks for the project. Volunteers work in teams. There are 5-15 for volunteers volunteering together in one workcamp. The workcamp volunteers are expected to be team players, be able and enjoy exploring ideas especially on implementing part of the project.

VSTV or as well-known as Weekend Workcamp is an international volunteering program where volunteers will stay less than 2 weeks (3 – 5 Days). As IIRC collaborate STV (Workcamp), VSTV (Weekend Work camp) and long term volunteering to achieve each project goals, therefore, all STV and VSTV project sites are the IIRC Long & Middle term Volunteering (LMTV) project sites as well. While LMTV projects are open the whole year, IIRC workcamps are organized seasonal (winter, spring, and summer). Two campleaders (or one for small group) are volunteering together in the workcamp. They are volunteers who are selected, trained, and mandated several responsibilities to facilitate and lead the workcamps. However, the successful of a workcamp is determined by the teamwork. J. Background

This program was implemented to introduce the culture carried out during Kartini's struggle. Kartini was one of the female heroes during the Dutch colonial era in Indonesia. She managed to create education for women in her time, because at that time a woman was not allowed to continue her education if she was 12 years old. Since that age, Kartini was married by his parents. Equipped with embroidery, batik, and sewing equipment. She started her determination to open an education school for women. Therefore, the existence of this program is to enhance the enthusiasm of learning for women and to preserve the culture that is the ancestral heritage and spread to all people to be able to protect it.
