

1.0 ABOUT UVIKIUTA-Tanzania

UVIKIUTA is a vibrant Youth development Organization that values volunteerism as a tool for sustainable development. The organization was established in 1983 to respond to the needs of young women and men to raise their living standards through developing and enhancing social and economic capacities. Our goal is to make contribute in building sustainable and self-reliant communities through providing holistic experience that broaden minds, expand horizons and empower young people and their communities to realize their full potential as productive, responsible and caring citizens. UVIKIUTA-Tanzania is founder member of the Eastern African voluntary service Network (EAVS-Network), formally EAWA, Long term partner with Service Civil International (SCI), ALLIANCE and NVDA among global Networks. We work also very close with Government Departments, United Nations Volunteer Program (UNV), learning institutions, Non-Government and Community based organizations.

Project description	Most Schools in Tanzania has long vacation in the month of June and December where students stays home. During this time, kids are expected to join family members for extracurricular activities, educational tours and other studies outside class rooms. However the experience has indicated that, most students does not have any structured activities that are fully involving them for personal and academic development. As a result, bad influence in the society during holiday time has affected the kids significantly since they join different peer groups and with limited supervision of their parents or guardian. This project is therefore aiming to fill the gap through effective utilizing vocation time to allow student/kids to join structured activities that we will contribute to their growth as well allow parents to consternate in productive economic activities.

Location: Marangu	Country: Tanzania	Min age: 16	Max. age: 99
Region: Kilimanjaro		Language: English & Kiswahili	Disabled: Yes (Provide details)
Project location	The project will take place in a small community called Marangu, famous for been a starting point for Mount Kilimanjaro truckers. The next bigger town is Moshi which is the capital of Kilimanjaro. Marangu is one of the communities located along the slopes of Mt. Kilimanjaro in the Northern Tanzania. Majority of community members are involved in coffee and banana farming, diary, fruits and vegetable production. Small minority are involved with petty trade, micro finance business and tourism. This community is located about 50km from the Capital of Kilimanjaro, Moshi. The place is accessible by both private and public transport; social facilities like hospital, Banks, post office, shops, and Internet/Cyber café s are accessible.
Project description	Environmental sustainability is a project which has been implemented around this area for the past three years. The community is sharing boarder with the forest around Mount Kilimanjaro and there is a big dependency on this important conserved forest. Majority of the communities living around the slopes are usually work in agriculture growing mostly coffee, bananas and other food crops. A big number of families still have traditionally cooked their meals on the ground in the house over an open flame. As a traditional house usually has only one room, the whole house is filled with smoke before and after meals. The smoke is thick and stays in the house as only a little hole in the roof allows for ventilation. As a result, acute respiratory and eye diseases are a significant problem for women and children. Additionally, this traditional form of cooking requires large amounts of firewood, which puts pressure on the Mount Kilimanjaro forest and is thus a major contributor to climate change. This project is therefore working towards initiatives to reduce pressure to the forest through promotion of healthy and energy serve stoves.
Project activities	Volunteers are expected to engage in the following activities:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Building and Installation of stoves: - Working with locals to build and install simple energy serves stoves in their households. Project description	Climate change is one of the most general threats to peace and security worldwide at least at this moment. However it has been obvious that not many people would list this as a key factor in international relations and domestic welfare. Climate change touches all areas of security, peace building, and sustainable development. The impacts of climate change are already adversely affecting vulnerable communities, as well as stretching the capacities of societies and Governments. Climate change is best understood as a ‘threat multiplier’, i.e. something that interacts with existing pressures (such as social conflict, economic inequality, large-scale migration, or competition for resources) and further compounds these issues—increasing the likelihood of instability or violent conflict. Peace & Climate change project is aiming to increase awareness and make contribution to the projects that support environmental sustainability.

Project activities	Kenya KVDA- Kenya will implement the following outlined activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Agro forestry that will include tree planting ▪ Preparation of tree nurseries and weeding ▪ Clean up activities ▪ Naming of trees ▪ Home visits ▪ Inter-cultural learning coupled with home visits for exposure to development challenges. Tanzania UVIKIUTA-Tanzania will implement the following outlined activities:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Tree planting and establishment of community Tree nursery: Planting trees is a great way to help sequester carbon emissions. Selected native trees species will be planted; this helps to preserve the environment and biodiversity. Planting will take place at the UVIKIUTA' eco village and other protected biodiversity sites. For sustainable tree planting activities volunteers will engage as well in establishment of native tree nursery. By planting trees & Tree nursery establishment during this program Volunteers will be helping provide wildlife habitats & support biodiversity, Nutrition through fruits and medicinal plants, Plant native Tanzania/Coastal trees, Enhance the natural landscape, and offset CO₂ emissions. ▪ Climate change (CC) Education and awareness: This activity aims to inform volunteers , community members and all targeted about Climate change, mobilize great support for action for CC grassroots participation and providing tools to engage critically with Climate changes issues to foster ideas and change attitudes. This will be implemented through Sports, Music, Arts, workshops, debates, discussions, educational tours, community events, sports and other creative methods.

All social facilities are available in this community since it located in a very strategic point. Telecom services, Heath, Recreational and restaurants, Banks among other are easily found. Public transport from the community to the city center is well organized and accessible.
Project description	The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), otherwise known as the Global Goals, are a universal call to action to end poverty, protect the planet and ensure that all people enjoy peace and prosperity. These 17 Goals build on the successes of the Millennium Development Goals, while including new areas such as climate change, economic inequality, innovation, sustainable consumption, peace and justice, among other priorities. The goals are interconnected – often the key to success on one will involve tackling issues more commonly associated with another. The SDGs work in the spirit of partnership and pragmatism to make the right choices now to improve life, in a sustainable way, for future generations. They provide clear guidelines and targets for all countries to adopt in accordance with their own priorities and the environmental challenges of the world at large. Grassroots ownership of the SDGs is one of the factors which will lead to the desired results. In this regard, awareness creation forms part of change-oriented communication in which all the sustainable development goals (SDGs) and target are communicated to community groups in response to the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. This project is therefore a platform for volunteers and other interested members where they become stimulated to contribute their own ideas and energies, thus contributing to live debates on

	sustainable issues. This will be realized through community events, interactive sessions on the SDGs and their targets, capacity building for community stakeholders and dialogue with local Government authorities in relations to SDGs and the targets.
Project activities	SDG advocate volunteers shall be expected to be engaged in the following activities:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Community Service (Hands-on activities): Planting trees is a great way to help sequester carbon emissions. Selected native trees species will be selected; this helps to preserve the environment and biodiversity. Planting will take place in the eco-village, Public places, school locations and other protected biodiversity sites. By planting trees during this program Volunteers will be helping Provide wildlife habitats & support biodiversity, Nutrition through fruits and medicinal plants, Plant native Tanzania/Coastal trees, Enhance the natural landscape, and offset CO₂ emissions. ▪ SDGs Education and awareness: This activity aims to inform volunteers , community members and all targeted about Sustainable development goals, mobilize great support for action for SDGs grassroots participation and providing tools to engage critically with global development issues to foster ideas and change attitudes. This will be implemented through workshops, debates, discussions, educational tours, community events, sports and other creative arts and music events. ▪ 2019 International Volunteers’ Day event: International Volunteer Day (IVD) mandated by the UN General Assembly, is held each year on 5 December. It is viewed as a unique chance for volunteers and organizations to celebrate their efforts, to share their values, and to promote their work among their communities, non-governmental organizations (NGOs), United Nations agencies, government authorities and the private sector.
